POSSE SCOURING HILLS FOR BANDITS

WILL TAIT GIVEN STAY FROM DEATH IN PRISON CHAIR

Eighth Reprieve Granted Confessed Slayer by
Gov. Robertson.

SAVED BY 48 HOURS

More Clemency Extended
Than Ever Before is Official Belief.

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 25.—Will H. Tait, whose death for the murder of Russell Sprague, Lawton service car driver, was set for Friday, has been granted his eighth reprieve by Governor J. B. A. Robertson. The decree, which have him until December 15 to live, was signed this morning 48 hours before he would have gone to the electric chair at the state penitentiary at McAlester.

Tait has had more reprieves than any other man ever sentenced to die in the state, it was said at the governor's office. The governor said Tait was being held until the appeal from death brought by Cleo W. Gobin, charged jointly with Tait of Sprague's murder, had been passed upon by the state criminal court of appeals.

Tait was first sentenced to die June 14, 1921. He pleaded guilty at the may term of district court at Lawton to the murder of Sprague in a lonely farm house eleven miles from Lawton March 21, 1921.

DEATH CELL WAS READY TO RECEIVE ITS VICTIM

(By the Associated Press)
McALESTER, Oct. 25.—Penitentiary authorities were advised at 8:30 this morning that another stay of execution is being forwarded for Will Tait. Governor Robertson, in conversation with Deputy Warden Garrett, asserted that while he did not like to do so, he believed due to the fact that Gobin's fate still hung on a supreme court decision Tait should not die in the chair until the Gobin case is closed and he advised the prison that the papers are now in the mails. Preparations were completed for moving Tait to the death cell and this was the closest call experienced by Tait in his eight reprieves from death.

ALLEGED KILLERS OF DAREDEVIL TO START

(By the Associated Press)
HACKENSACK, N. J., Oct. 25.—
The case of George Cline, Charles Souliou and Olive Thornton charged with the murder of Jack Bergen, daredevil of the movies, in Cline's home in Edgewater is expected to go to the jury of six men and six women which has been hearing the evidence today.

Both sides had rested before 11 o'clock and State Senator Mackay, defense counsel, began his summing up.

Sunday Paper

Subscribers to The Ada Evening News will not get a paper next Saturday evening, but they will get one early Sunday morning.

The Sunday paper will carry Associated Press dispatches received as late as midnight Saturday night and will contain various features. Improvements in the way of comics and other features will be made as soon as the business will justify it.

The News management is frank to say this is an experiment. It is believed the Sunday paper will prove popular and will be a considerable improvement. It will be continued and improved if the business will justify it; otherwise it will be discontinued in time.

The Ada Evening News at this time carries more local and world news than any other newspaper in the state in a city the same size or even several thousand inhabitants larger. But the management believes in progress and knows the citizens of Ada want to go forward. It is in keeping with this spirit that the Sunday paper is being attempted.

Schoolboy to Face Another Loot Charge

17-Year-Old Lad Taken From Books Again to Go Into Court.

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—Willie Dalton, 17 year old former bank messenger, laid aside his school books once more today to face his third trial for stealing $72,000 in bonds from the Northern Trust company here in February 1921.
In the first two trials the jury disagreed. Young Dalton, whose flight with the stolen bonds made him the object of a nation wide search, was captured in a country pool room by a village marshal at Hey-worth, Ill., near Bloomington.
The boy carried the stolen bonds in a satchel, which he tossed carelessly into a corner while he was engaged in a game of pool.
A reward of $25,000 was given to his captors.

BANDITS ESCAPE BY CLEVER RUSE

Kellyville Bank Robbers Abandon First Auto
and Elude Chase.

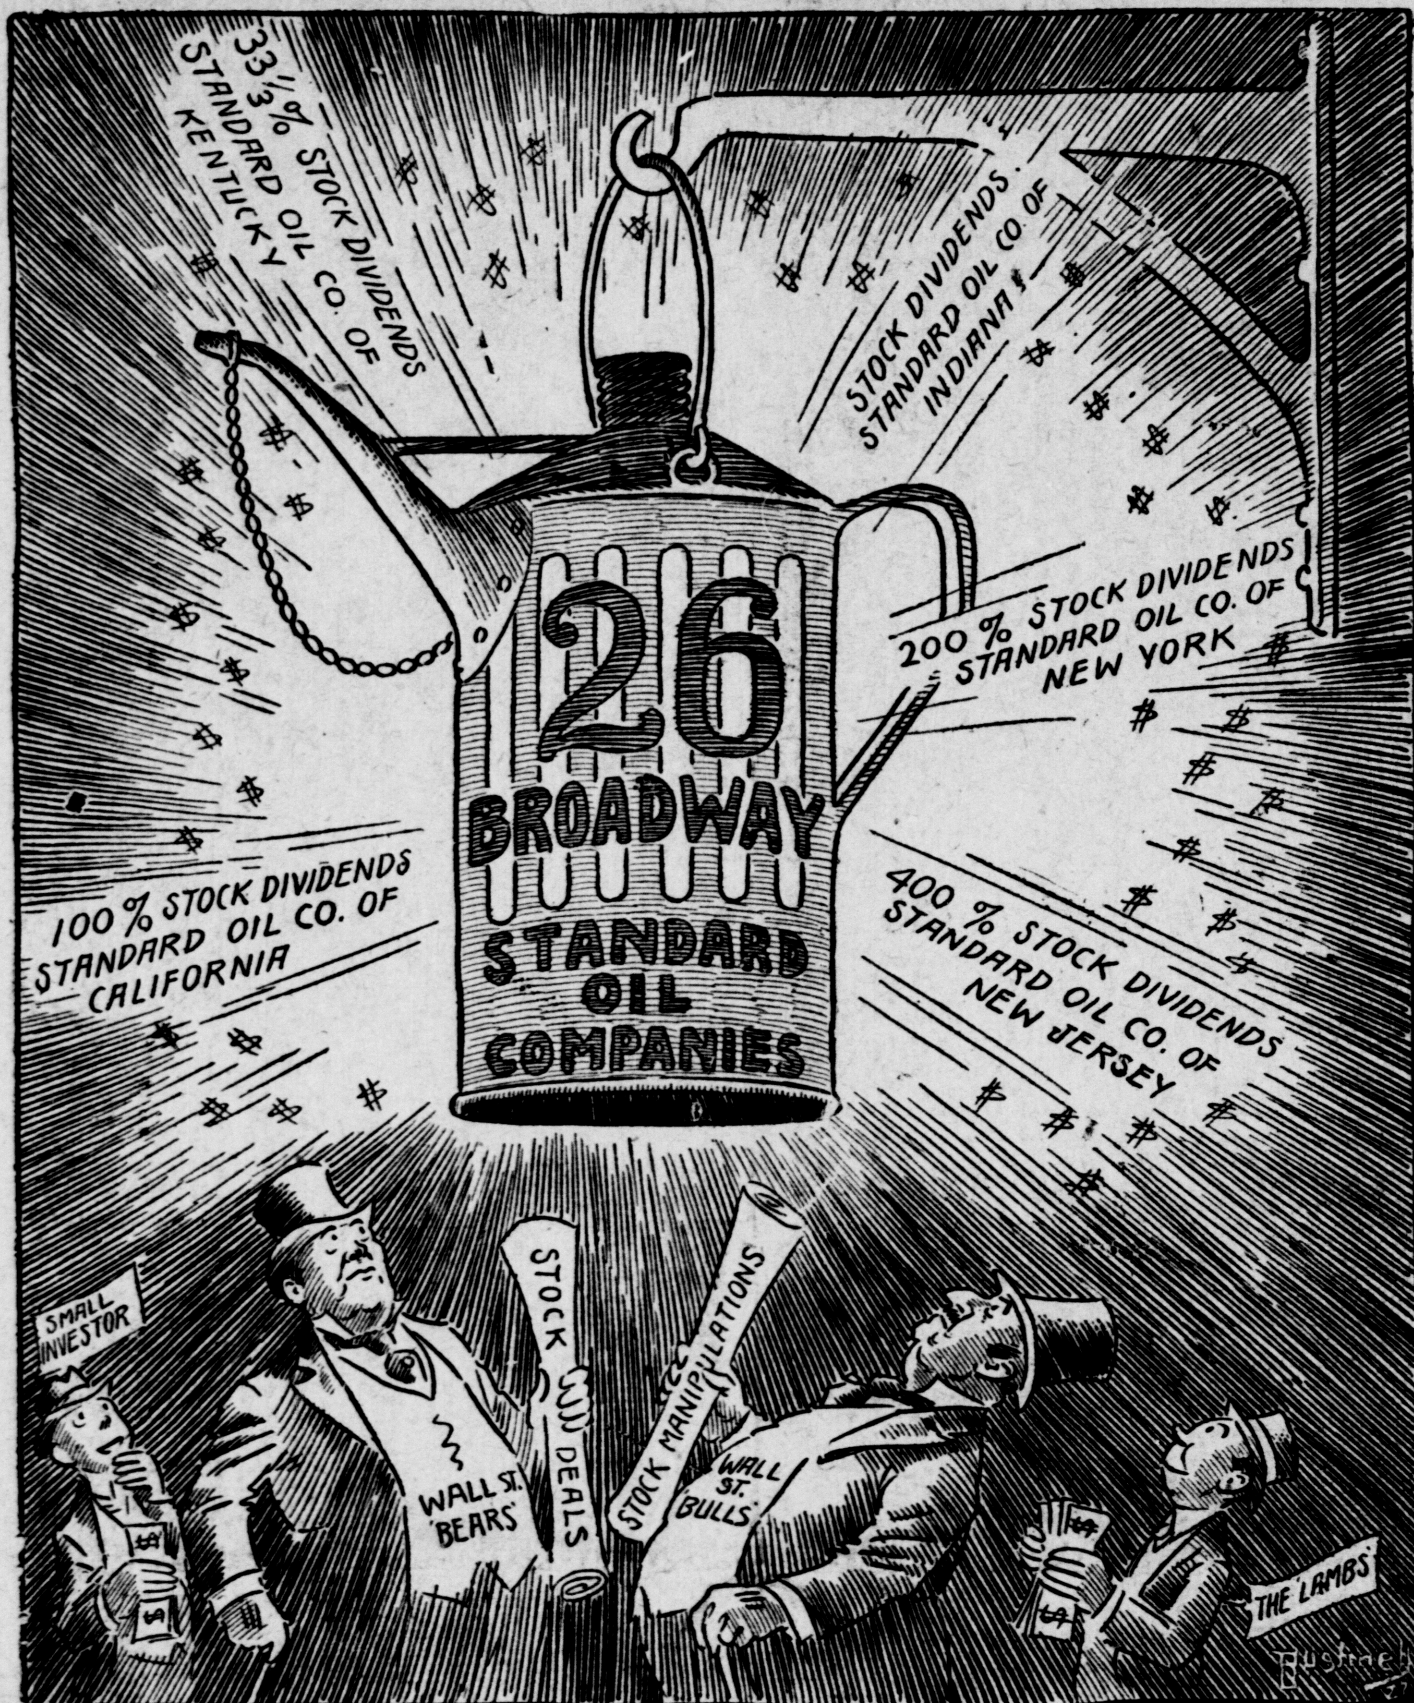

(By the Associated Press)
BRISTOW, Oct. 25.—Four bandits who robbed the Kellyville First State bank yesterday seemed to have made good their escape by a clever ruse, which was not suspected until it was too late.
After throwing the girl assistant cashier into the vault and taking the $2,500 they found on the counter, the quartet sped away in a car, but were quickly followed by Sheriff D. B. Livingston and a posse. The officers leaped upon the abandoned car near a wood close to Slick and immediately jumped at the conclusion that the robbers had despaired of getting away in a car, and taken to the woods afoot. Officers scouring the place learned that instead of taking to the woods afoot, the bandits had simply transferred to another car previously "planted" and made their getaway while their confident pursuers were beating the bush.

From descriptions furnished by the Kellyville bank it is believed that the robbery was the work of four known local youths whom the authorities are now seeking.

IMMIGRATION MAN IS FOUND DEAD IN WACO

WACO, Tex., Oct. 25.—Frank H.
Hewitt, 56, a commissioner of immigration for the candian government with headquarters at Kansas City, was found dead in his bed here today. Death was due to a paralytic stroke, physicians said. Mr. Hewitt's home was in Winnipeg and he came to Waco in charge of a Canadian exhibit at the Texas Cotton Palace an annual exposition.

WALL STREET'S FINANCIAL BEACON

C. OF C. PLANS TO COMBAT WEEVILS

Local Chamber Will Wage Campaign to Blot Out
Cotton Field Pest.

A meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce was held Tuesday evening. Many business matters were discussed and some plans for future work were laid out, according to Ralph Waner, secretary.

One of the most important topics discussed was the proposed campaign this fall to exterminate the boll weevil. It was pointed out that the Chamber of Commerce would join with other organizations of this and adjoining counties, as well as neighboring states, in an effort to rid fields of the pest.

Prizes offered early in the year for the best acres of cucumbers were awarded. The prizes were based on the sale from a single acre to the Ada pickle factory. The Ada banks put up $50 of the prize money, the merchants $40, J. M. Atkinson, proprietor of the factory, $25 and the auto dealers $10. This was divided into five prizes and awarded as follows: D. N. Myers, Route 3, Ada, $50; J. A. York, Route 3, Ada, $40; R. M. Baker, Route 3, $20; A.
P. Young, Route 2, $10; C. M.
Gwaltney, Route 5, $5.

Cotton Ginning for Country Amounts to Six Million Bales

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Cotton ginned prior to October 18 amounted to 6,962,034 running bales counting 128,487 round bales as half bales and including 8,394 bales of American-Egyptian and 21,052 bales of sea island, the census bureau announced today in its third ginning report of the season.
Ginning prior to October 18 last year amounted to 5,497,364 running bales. To that date in 1920 it amounted to 5,754,582 bales.

Ginning figures prior to October 18 this year and last year in Oklahoma were 438,922 and 352,493.

Fancy Pistols of Bud Ballew Taken Home by His Wife

WICHITA FALLS, Tex., Oct.
25.—The two pearl handled
'six guns' with which Bud Ballew, veteran officer and gun fighter of the southwest, attempted to resist arrest here last spring are in the possession of his wife who returned to Ardmore, Okla., today. Ballew was shot and killed by the local chief of police, the only man who had ever beaten Bud to the "draw."

One of the pistols bore six notches on the handle.

SPEAKING CLUBS AT HIGH SCHOOL READY FOR WORK

Public speaking clubs at the high school have been organized this year and according to reports "are going strong." More than 40 students have been enrolled and interest is growing rapidly. Two programs at assembly have already been rendered. Officers have been elected and plans have been made to carry out an extensive course of work this year.

Prof. J. L. German is in charge of the work and reports that his students are making rapid progress.
The main object of the clubs, he pointed out, is to give those who will be selected for the debating teams an opportunity to get experience before the debating season opens.

"We will have an even break with other schools by this method," he explained.

Debating, extempore speaking, declaration and readings are engaged in. Prof. German said he expected to be able to have his debating teams in the field working regularly by Christmas.

Officers elected for the Citizens'
Forum are as follows: Paye Laird, president; Bob Naylor, vice-president; Pauline Rallow, secretary; Charles Jackson, sergeant at arms; Ella Carpenter, reporter. Officers for the Senate are as follows: Frank Morris, president; Grace Mooney, vice-president; Vella Bess, secretary;
Harold McKelvy, sergeant at arms;
Dixie Lee Russell, reporter.

MOST STUDENTS' AGES ARE BETWEEN 15 AND 20

An interesting review of the ages of the students enrolled at the college shows that by far the greater number are between 15 and 20. In this division there are 536 pupils.
One hundred and forty are from 21 to 25; 57 are between 26 and 30; 34 from 31 to 35; seven from 36 to 40; and seven from 41 to 50.

LLOYD GEORGE TO FAVOR PROGRESS

Unity of Great Britain and United States is Plea
in Speech.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—"I will support any party and any government that pursues a policy of peace, economy and steady progress, neither revolutionary nor reactionary, and does it efficiently," former Prime Minister Lloyd George told the coalition liberal members of parliament at a meeting this morning.
In another part of his speech
he made the declaration:
"Great Britain must pay America all her debts."
Unity of action between Great Britain and the United States was urged by Mr. Lloyd George in a speech.

"I am for the League of Nations," he said, "but until you get the United States and all the great nations of Europe as well as the small, the League will be crippled and cannot serve its full purpose."
"America and great Britain must work together."

THIS MONTH MAY KEEP CITY COURT ON STEADY GRIND

Police reports today indicated that the month of October would lead in the amount of money collected for fines and the number of arrests made, as well as the larger range of offenses for which they were made.

In a total of 19 arrests for the week ended this morning, police collected $154.75 in fines. This is the week for the month, as well as for the year. While fines usually run more than $400, police believed they would exceed the $700 mark this month. It is expected that before the end of the year approximately $4000 in fines will have been assessed by the new city administration.

Seventeen of the arrests made during the past week were for drunkenness. One was for speeding and one on a charge of stealing.
More fines for speeding have been assessed this month than for any previous month. It is estimated that three arrests daily are being made by the police department. More than 70 arrests have already been made this month, it was said.

Dog Stealing Count Causes Long Journey

Grady County Man Must Go to North Carolina if Papers are Signed.

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 25.—
The charge that he stole three dogs, "on which taxes had been paid," make take Julius Melton, now living in Grady county, back to North Carolina. The governor of that state has requested his requisition. The papers are before Gov. J. B. A.
Robertson.
According to information attached to the requisition papers the dogs were the property of J. A. McCurry of Burns-ville, N. C. The agent sent from the eastern state to take charge of Melton on the journey is S. G. Beason. No value is placed on the dogs.

TRUANCY LAW TO BE MADE ACTIVE

Board Appoints Cullins as Officer; Plans for Enforcement Made.

Beginning Monday, November 6, provisions of the compulsory school attendance law will be rigidly enforced, according to a notice made public Wednesday by the city board of education.

T. O. Cullins has been appointed as truant officer.

Following statement accompanied the board's announcement:

"The board of education of the public schools of this independent school district, including the city of Ada, desires to give every boy and girl of school age in the district the advantages of the public school. The board, also, feels that when these opportunities are offered by the taxation of all the people that all children should take advantage of the opportunities offered.
As a matter of fact, however, there are always some people who through carelessness or indifference fail to put their children in school and keep them going regularly. It is not the purpose of the board to work a hardship on any one but it is the duty of the board to enforce the law of the state in regard to parents or guardians who fail to send their children to school. In recognition of this duty, your attention is called to the following: found in Article XIII, Sec. 240 of the school laws of this state:

"Section 240, Compulsory Period
—Duties of Parents: It shall be unlawful for any parent, guardian or custodian, living in the state of Oklahoma, to neglect or refuse to cause or compel children or wards to attend and comply with the rules of some public, private, or other schools unless other means of education are provided, for sixty-six and two-thirds per cent of the term the schools of the district are in session, which shall apply to all children of the district over the age of eight and under the age of eighteen, unless they are prevented by mental or physical disability, the question of disability to be determined by the school district board or board of education upon a certificate of a duly licensed and practicing physician; provided, however, that this requirement shall not apply to a child between the ages of six and sixteen and lawfully employed and has satisfactorily completed the work of the eighth grade of public schools or its equivalent, or (2) who has satisfactorily completed the full course of instruction provided by the public schools of the district where he resides. (Sec. 1, S. B. 167, S. L. 1919.)"

"The penalty for not complying with the same is found in Sec. 244 of the same article which is as follows:—
"Section 244, Penalty for Violation: Any person violating the provisions of any section of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction, shall be fined in any sum not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars. Each day a child is out of school contrary to the provisions of this article shall constitute a separate offense. Said fine, when collected, shall be credited to the school fund of the district in which the offending party resides. (5)"

CITIZENS STAND ALWAYS IN FEAR OF BOLD HOLDUP

Talala Bank Robbers Not Yet Found, is Report
from Officers.

WERE SEEN MONDAY

Three Unmasked Men Not Known but Identity
is Suspected Now.

(By the Associated Press)
CLAREMORE, Oct. 25.—Apparently the three men who yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock robbed the First State bank of Talala of $1,200 and a number of Liberty bonds have succeeded in making good their escape to the Osage hills, 16 miles west of the town to which they sped on leaving the bank.

While the bandits are not believed to be known in Talala they are thought to have visited the town on Monday and a fairly good description of the trio has been obtained.

Public opinion in Rogers and Osage counties has been fanned to white heat by the series of successful robberies and getaways which the robbers have to their credit, and a move is now on foot to get enough men together to wipe out the strong band, which, according to all indications, has its hiding place in the rough country of the Osage hills.

It is felt that until this is done there will be a continuation of the raids on banks and other establishments, particularly in the small towns, and that success of the criminals in eluding their pursuers so consistently will invite bolder and more outrageous acts of banditry.

FIFTEEN PURSUERS OFF TO CAPTURE OUTLAWS

(By the Associated Press)
BARTLESVILLE, Oct. 25.— Members of a sheriff's posse including officers from Rogers, Nowata, Washington and Osage counties left Bartlesville early this morning to scour the Osage hills in search of a gang of bandits who have been staging robberies in this vicinity for several weeks past, and escaping to their hiding places in the Osage hills. Fifteen men comprise the posse. All are determined to search every possible hiding place in their effort to round up the bandit gang and put an end to their raids.

MRS. ROSIER NOW CENTER OF WARM LAWYERS' FIGHT

(By the Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.— Cautiously and with a determination, never overlooking an opportunity to seize a technicality that might score a point, the opposition lawyers in the trial of Mrs. Katherine Rosier, charged with the murder of her husband and his stenographer, are fighting one of the bitterest legal battles ever held in this city's courts.

Arthur Rosier, brother of the slain man, was subjected to a cross-examination yesterday by the defense counsel.

The defense is endeavoring to show that he was in a plot to ostracize the Rosiers so that Oscar Rosier could marry his stenographer. This he denied.

BOYLE TO PROBE IN McCURTAIN MINE DISASTER

(By the Associated Press)

McCURTAIN, Okla., Oct. 25.—Ed Boyle, state mine inspector, today continued his investigation of the operation of two Progressive mines here which he declares are violating his recent order that the mine "fire-boss" must be a man not directly interested in the mine. Last night Boyle said he had not been fully convinced that the mine had violated the order, but in a statement the inspector declared this morning that he was pushing the inquiry and that there is a probability that criminal action will be taken.

Seven men were killed and three injured last week in an explosion of gas at one of the mines operated by the Progressive Coal company.

The average duration of life in England is now 57 years.

SAVED SICK SPELLS

Black-Draught Found Valuable by a Texas Farmer, Who Has Known Its Usefulness Over 30 Years.

Naples, Texas.—"I have used Thedford's Black-Draught for years—I can safely say for more than 30 years," declares Mr. H. H. Cromer, a substantial, well-known farmer, residing out from here on Route 3.

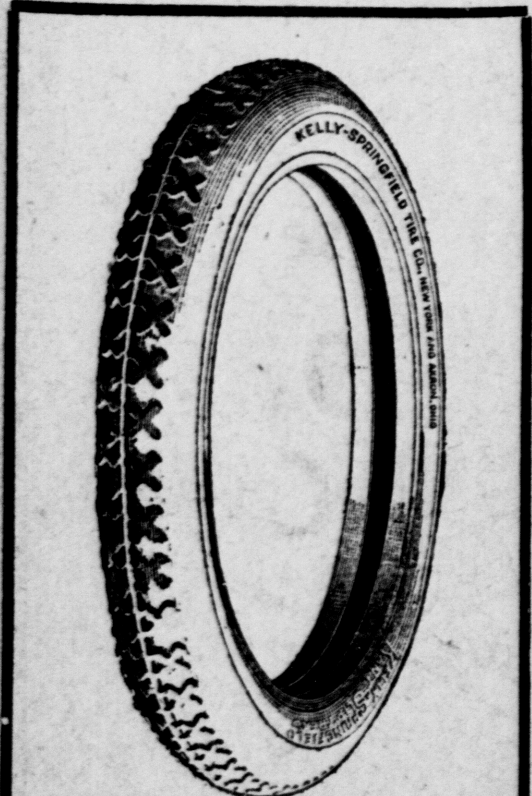

"I am 43 years old, and when a small boy I had indigestion and was puny, and my folks gave me a liver regulator. Then Black-Draught was advertised and we heard of it.

"I began to take Black-Draught, and have used it, when needed, ever since. I use Black-Draught now in my home, and certainly recommend it for any liver trouble.

"I have given it a thorough trial, and after thirty years can say Black-Draught is my stand-by. It has saved me many sick spells."

Mr. Cromer writes that he is "never out of Black-Draught," and says several of his neighbors prefer it to any other liver medicine. "I always recommend Black-Draught to my friends," he adds.

This valuable, old, powdered liver medicine is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, and has none of the bad effects so often observed from the use of calomel, or other powerful mineral drugs. Be sure to get the genuine, Thedford's. NC-145

Plain and Plaid Wool In Coat-Dress Effect

By MARY BROOKS PICKEN

ONE MIGHT term this little model a coat dress and yet its style is entirely distinctive in comparison with this season's type of women's coat dress, as it gives the effect of a three-piece suit more than of a coat.

Navy serge and a wool plaid of navy, white, and black are the materials illustrated. The plain serge forming the jacket effect and the plaid the straight box-plaited skirt and center-front portion of the waist.

Black braid bindings, bound buttonholes, and self-covered buttons provide trimming for the jacket, while the plaid allies with "ready-made" accessories, a black leather belt and a jaunty tie of black silk.

A collar of white linen rolled to form a becoming frame for the face completes this costume. The high alpine crown on this medium-sized felt poke is a decidedly new feature in children's hats. A row of bar stitching outlines the brim edge, the base and the top of the side crown.

Women's Council to Ask Equal Political Right at Convention

(By the Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—The executive council of the national women's party met here today to consider several questions regarded as vital to the progress of women in politics and to lay plans for a national conference of the party officials here November 11. Among the subjects to be taken up was that of the immediate introduction in congress of a national equal rights amendment to the federal constitution. Leaders in the council also proposed at the meeting to draft a "1922 women's charter of rights supplementary to the women's charter of 1848."

Boy Scouts of City to Start Wrestling and Boxing Contests

Troop 5, Boy Scouts of Ada, has entered a new scope of activity to keep members interested, according to its scout master, Roy Meeks. Wrestling and boxing are being taken up by a large number of its members and challenges are being sent out to scouts from other troops of the city.

A meeting of Troop 5 will be held at the American Legion hall Friday night at 7:30. Any scout who wishes to engage a member of Troop 5 in wrestling or boxing should report at that time, Mr. Meeks said. His scouts are training and getting into shape for athletic events.

Inter-troop wrestling and boxing contests are to be prompted. It is believed that this will not only keep the boys interested in clean sports, but will furnish excitement and amusement for them enough to keep meetings interesting.

Those who are issuing challenges from Troop 5 are: Wrestling—Bennie Shipman, 143 pounds; Roy Young, 115 pounds; Simon Kilcrease, 90 pounds; Bill Mackin, 55 pounds. Boxing—Bennie Shipman, 143 pounds; Turner Garwood, 140 pounds; Harold Strohm, 141 pounds; Brown Mackin, 110 pounds; Simon Kilcrease, 90 pounds.

CONTRACTORS TO START MEMORIAL HALL NEXT WEEK

Before the end of next week, work on the memorial convention hall will be well under way, according to reports circulated at the city hall Wednesday. Hill and sons, contractors, are preparing to start work Monday.

Several days will be required to remove the buildings on the site for the hall, one of which is to be moved back and used as a tool house. As soon as this work is completed excavation will be started and it is expected that within a month regular construction of the walls will be opened.

Several months are expected to be required to complete the hall. A picture of the hall is on exhibition in the mayor's office.

3,583 BALES ARE BROUGHT TO ADA GINS, IS REPORT

The four gins of Ada have received 3,583 bales of cotton up to Wednesday morning, according to figures given out Wednesday. Although many farmers have finished picking, enough cotton was coming in Wednesday to keep the gins going pretty well.

Receipts at the county yard were just turning the 3,400 mark and John Ward, the weigher, stated that receipts have been some 40 or 50 bales per week. With gin and association shipments which do not pass through the hands of the weigher, the total for the season will run somewhere between 3,500 and 4,000 bales.

The price has held up well for several days and cotton has sold on the streets from 22 to 24 cents.

UNION OF PROTESTANT CHURCHES IS PROPOSED

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 25.—Union of the six largest protestant denominations is favored in a resolution adopted by the Detroit Association of Congregational churches in session here. No definite steps towards such a union however, have been taken. The denominations mentioned in the resolutions are the Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist, Congregational, Protestant Episcopal and Evangelical churches.

MISSOURI WOMAN IN CONGRESS RACE

"Lower taxation for the masses" is the chief plank in the platform of Mrs. Luella St. Clair Moss, candidate for congress from Missouri. She is the first woman to make the race in Missouri. She is a Democrat.

NEW CABINET OF BONAR LAW GOES IN POWER TODAY

(By the Associated Press) LONDON, Oct. 25.—The cabinet of Prime Minister Andrew Bonar Law was sworn in at Buckingham Palace this morning. As a result of the taking of the oath of office the members of the cabinet began to function as the new government immediately.

With this act, the coalition ministry of former Premier Lloyd George officially passed into history. Previously in the day, the members of the late cabinet went to Buckingham palace and surrendered their seals of office to the king. The ministers of Mr. Bonar Law's new government received the same symbols of power in turn from the hand of their monarch. Thus one of the most exciting epochs of political history of England has ended.

Suspended Mine Men May Regain Charter at Pittsburg Meet

(By the Associated Press) PITTSBURG, Kan., Oct. 25.—A step preliminary to the re-establishment of the autonomy of District 14 of the United Mine Workers of America was taken today with the assembling here of delegates from all the qualified local unions in the district for a constitutional convention.

It is anticipated that the convention will complete its work by Saturday. The drafting of a constitution and by-laws for the district, suspended during the fall of 1921 by John L. Lewis, president of the International United Mine Workers, will be the chief business of the assembly.

St. Louis Officers Seeking to Return Two Youthful Thugs

(By the Associated Press) ST. LOUIS, Oct. 25.—Sheriff John William today departed for Springfield, Ill., in an effort to induce Illinois officers to turn over to now two youths said to be Robert Kleesen and Claire Rush, two of the six prisoners who escaped from the St. Louis county jail at Clayton, October 15, after beating Warden William Grupp into unconsciousness.

Springfield authorities have stated they prefer to hold the youths there, where they are charged with highway robbery.

JURY IS STILL OUT ON EARL MAYFIELD'S CASE

(By the Associated Press) CORSCANA, Tex., Oct. 25.—No decision had been reached today by a jury deliberating on injunction proceedings which seek to keep the name of Earl B. Mayfield, democratic candidate for the United States senate, off the November ballot. The jurors went to lunch at noon but no word had been received on their deliberations. The case went to the jury at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

A WOMAN'S WAY

"I tried for four months to get my wife to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which I know had helped a friend of mine who also suffered from stomach trouble. She insisted her case was different. I finally had to bribe her with a new dress. The first dose produced remarkable results, clearing up her complexion and restoring her appetite. She can now eat things she hadn't been able to for many years." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Gwin and Mays and druggists everywhere. (Adv.)

REVISION OF TREATY IS SOUGHT IN MANIFESTO

(By the Associated Press) LONDON, Oct. 25.—A manifesto of the labor party issued this evening prevents the removal of the national debt burden through the creation of a "war debt funding" commission. It further declares for a revision of the peace treaty with Germany, for an international conference to arrange freedom of the straits, for the independence of Egypt, and for self government for India.

LUTHER HARRISON WILL ADDRESS VOTERS TOMORROW

Senator Luther Harrison will address the voters in the interest of the democratic ticket tomorrow (Thursday) evening at 7:30. The speaking will be on the first floor of the Pontotoc building corner of Main and Rennie, formerly occupied by Levin's furniture store. Seats have been provided and the public is urged to come and give this former citizen of Ada a hearing.

HANDITS MAID BANK AND MAKE OFF WITH BOODLE

(By the Associated Press) STOFFVILLE, Ont., Oct. 25.—A band of crack men swooped down on this town early today, cut all telegraph and telephone wires, broke into the Standard Bank, blew open the safe door and escaped with approximately $10,000 in cash and a quantity of securities.

THE SECRET

By GERTRUDE W. FIELDER

(© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

"It not grow, lady." Betty looked up from the trench she was digging, straight into the bright black eyes of Nicola, vendor of vegetables.

"Why won't it grow?" Betty demanded, brandishing her trench tool, a huge carving knife.

Nicola retreated a step and tried another tack. "Work too hard. Ladies not plant seed, tubers."

"Those who work in gardens plant other things than seeds and tubers. They plant hope and faith and love," Betty began softly.

"It not grow," repeated Nicola.

Betty patted the earth around the tuber with kindly hands. Without looking up, she remarked, "My confidence is the confidence of seers. Wherefore should I have vexation of spirit lest what ought to be will not be?"

Nicola did not task her to repeat. He ignored her remark.

"Me, I plant early, cover all, glass," said Nicola. "I sell, you buy," he added, in tones of oily smoothness.

"Today I'll buy, yes; but tomorrow (Betty spoke figuratively), when my garden attains its rich fulfillment, I shall not need to buy. I shall have potatoes and squashes."

"But today I'll take that and that and that, and be sure to call every day. If I must become a vegetarian, at least I'll be graceful about it," she added whimsically.

"You couldn't be otherwise," said a voice behind her.

"How long, if I may ask, have you been eaves-dropping?" Betty inquired politely.

"Long enough to be consumed with jealousy. You never asked me to call every day."

Betty sat back on her heels and surveyed her next door neighbor with eyes that would twinkle. "It was hardly necessary," she was beginning, when he vaulted the hedge as he had a habit of doing.

"If you will pardon the suggestion, you would be saved from disappointment later if you—"

"Should send to the agriculture bureau for a pamphlet prepared for the amateur gardener," Betty interrupted.

"Five good friends have already offered me the same advice."

"On the contrary," said the young doctor, calmly. "I was about to suggest you take a partner."

"Nicola can make bigger profits, having me for a customer," Betty retorted, resuming her interrupted gardening to hide the laughter in her eyes.

"I did not have Nicola in mind," returned the young doctor.

"There are individuals who say, and that boasting, that this thing of letting love get the best of you is ridiculous," he said, suddenly.

"For what are you digging a hole—a tomato plant or a tree?" queried Betty, demurely.

And then a pair of startled brown eyes gazed into a pair of wondering gray.

"What is it?" whispered the owner of the brown.

"Captain Kidd's treasure trove, I think," answered the owner of the gray.

"Oo-oo! Can't you lift it out?" cried Betty.

"Um-m. Well. It's coming. There!" depositing a small iron box upon the ground. "It isn't Captain Kidd's treasure, after all. Maybe it's Mrs. Captain's, though."

"How do you know, before we open it?" giggled Betty.

"Who but a woman would leave the key in the lock," he grinned.

"Goody! Now we can open it quick," said Betty. "It's mine, because grandfather left everything to me."

"One moment," said the young doctor, looking straight into Betty's eyes. "If within the box be gold untold, I mount by coal-black stallion and ride away into the unknown—for its equivalent."

And then the box stood open.

"Letters!" exclaimed Betty. "Who would bury letters so carefully?" Wonderingly, she drew one forth. It crackled between her fingers. "Dearest Charles," she deciphered the cramped, faded handwriting, then turned to the signature, "Ever your Elizabeth."

"They're love letters," she cried, a little breathlessly. "grandfather's and grandmother's."

"I wonder why the one who buried them didn't burn them, instead?" said the young doctor.

"I wonder," said Betty. "Once, so mother told me, grandfather disobeyed grandfather's wishes, braving his displeasure and anger to bring about something which she knew was the desire of his heart. Grandfather never forgave her—not until the very last. I think grandfather buried the letters because—because they seemed like a part of grandmother, and he was sorry he had been so hard. We'll not read them, boy, dear."

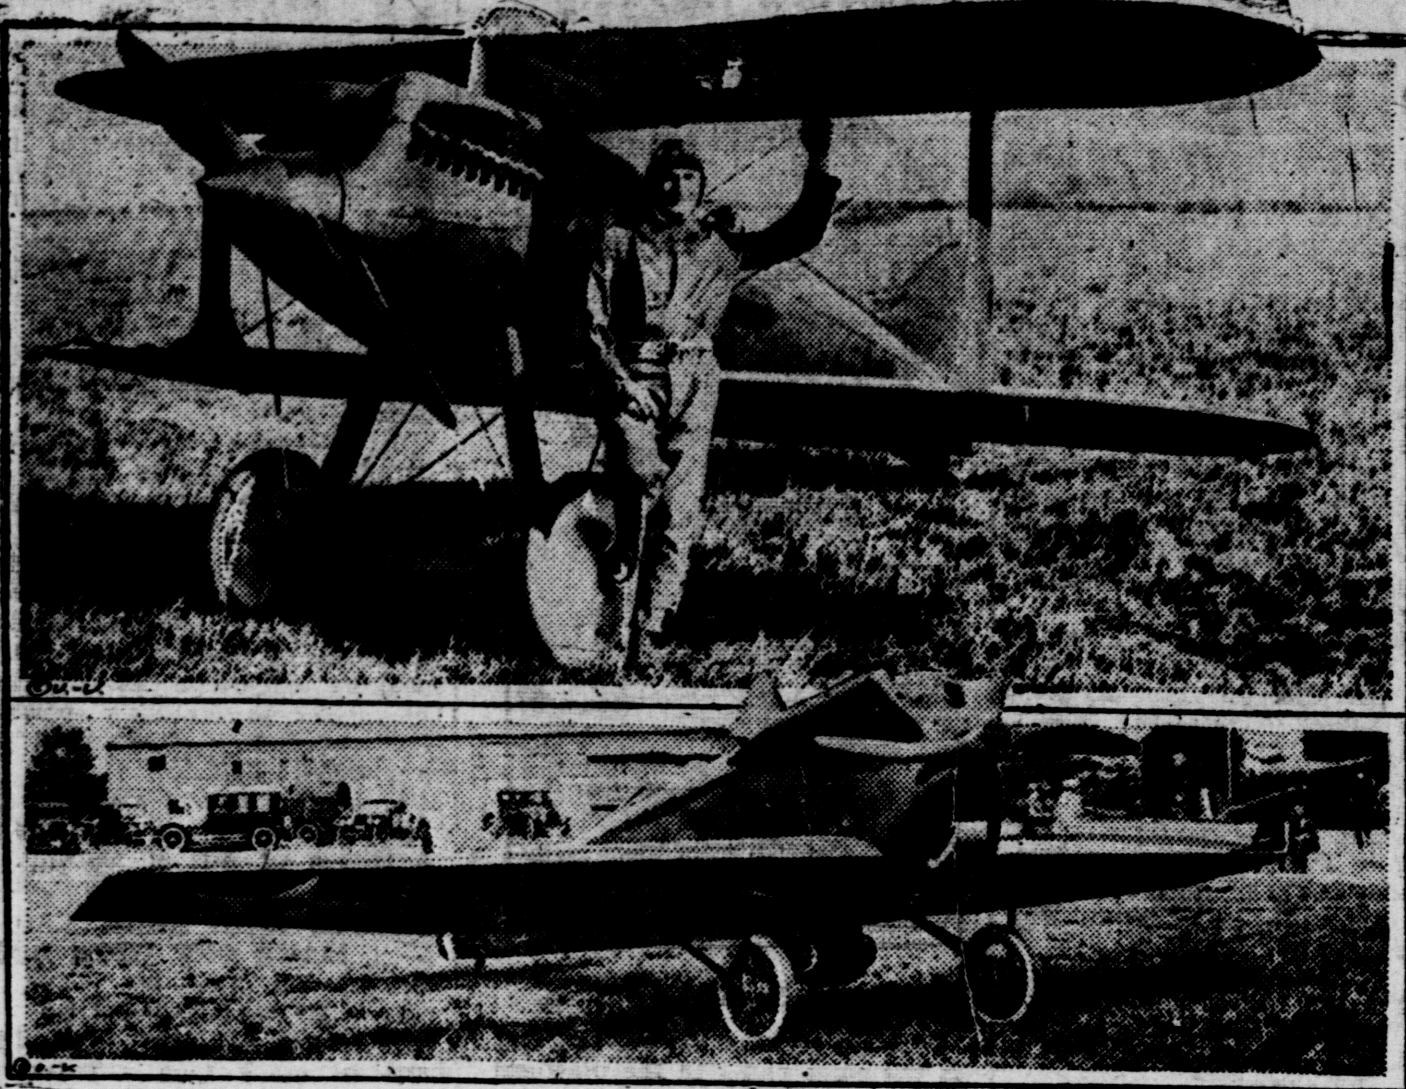

"Of course not, dearest. We'll put them back where we found them. Strange you should select this spot for your garden."

"No, not strange," said Betty, softly. "I was planting something beside a garden—hope and faith and love."

The setting was not the usual one chosen by lovers—night with silvery moonbeams dancing in fantastic shapes beyond the velvet shadows—instead, brown earth, sun kissed. But once more the old, old story in dulcet tones was told.

Princess Yolanda, the oldest daughter of the king of Italy, is declared to be the most accomplished horsewoman among all the women of European royalty.

TWO OF THE PLANES NOW THRILLING DETROIT

Above, army's Curtiss speeder, No. 2; below, Verville-Sperry racer, another army entrant in Detroit races. Trial flights averaging 220 miles an hour make the army Curtiss speeder one of the fastest planes entered in the Detroit air derby for the Pulitzer trophy. The Verville-Sperry machine is also a fast plane. The landing gear on this is pulled up in flight much like a bird's feet.

Under ordinary flying conditions the plane carries 725 gallons of gasoline, 25 gallons of water and 35 gallons of oil. Approximately three tons of fuel and lubricant will be carried on this longest non-stop air voyage.

Painted on the sides of the plane will be the letters "Army Air Service, Non-Stop, Coast to Coast, A. S. 54,233." The number indicates the number of the plane.

McReady, who will pilot the ship over the Rockies, was born here in 1888. He is holder of the world's altitude record, attaining 40,800 feet at Dayton, Ohio, September 26, last year.

Kelly won fame as a stunt flyer during the war.

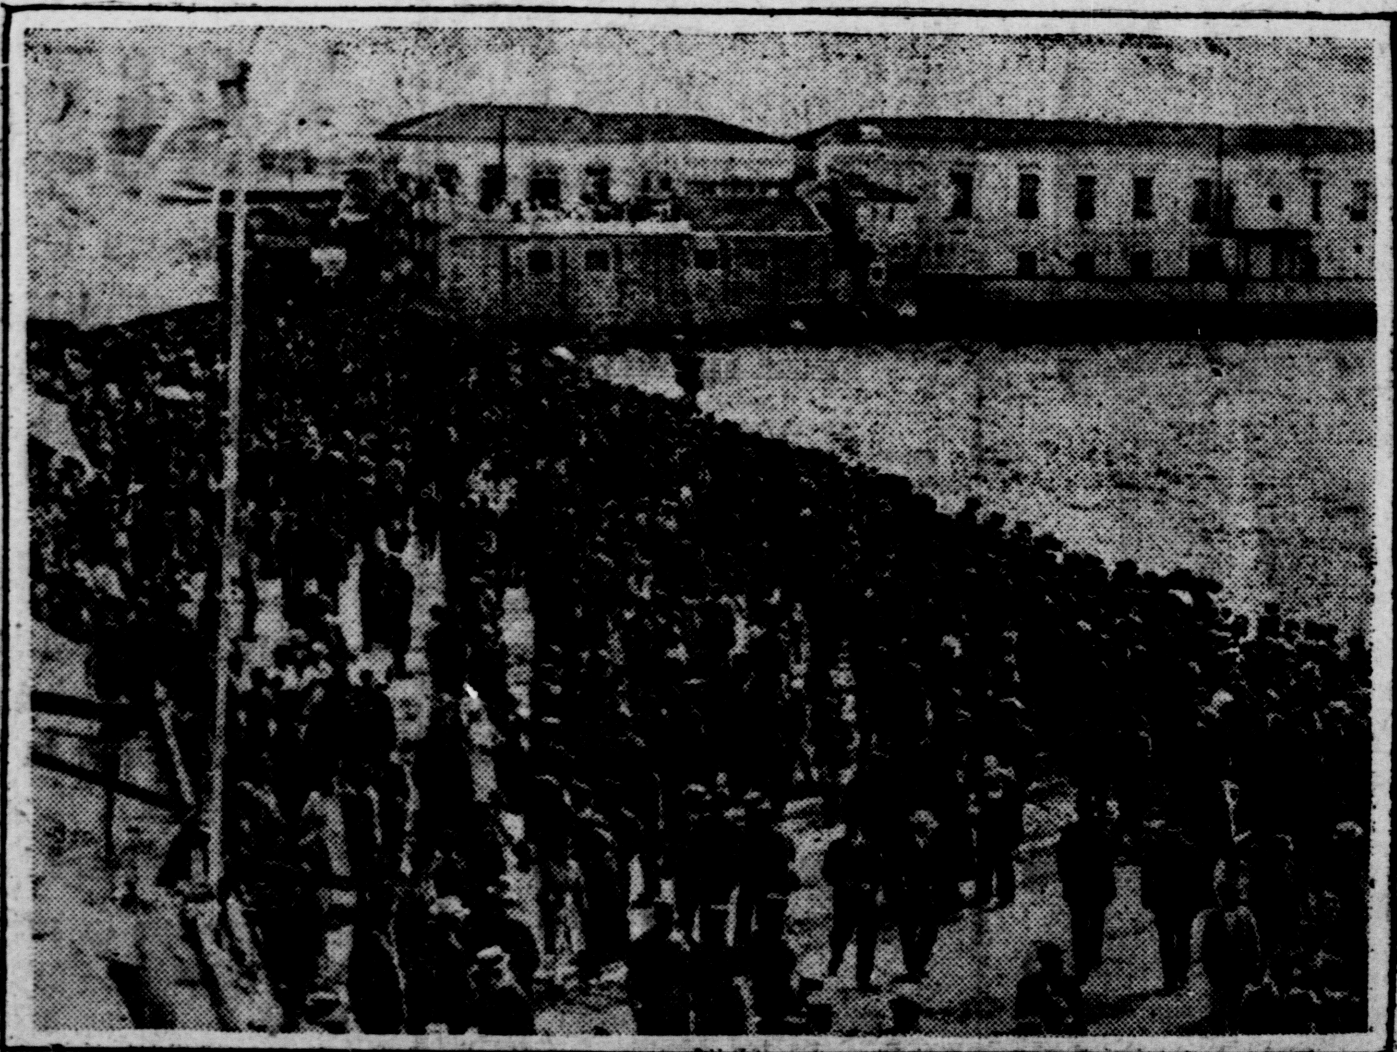

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Oct. 25.—Two United States army air service aviators, both of whom have earned fame in the world of aviation, will pilot the world's largest monoplane on the world's longest non-stop flight.

This feat will be undertaken soon by Lieuts. John A. McReady and Oakley Kelly when they hop off from Rockwell field on the 3,000-mile continuous flight to New York. The path probably will be direct from San Diego to New York. The T.2 army transport is faster than any of the great air busses plying between London and Amsterdam and is the largest and most powerful monoplane yet to come from the hands of a manufacturer. It was designed and built by U. S. army aeronautical engineers at McCook field, Dayton, Ohio.

The monoplane has a wing spread of 81 feet 4 inches with a wing width of 15 feet. Thickness of the

Probably the biggest punch in "For the Defense," a new Paramount picture starring Ethel Clayton which will be shown at the McSwain theatre today comes in the trial scene, according to Paul Powell, who directed the production.

Knowing herself innocent, a fact she has maintained steadfastly throughout the trial, Jennie, determined not to permit her best friend to bear the burden of guilt, reverses her testimony and screams that she alone is guilty—but the rest must be left for the audience to discover when the picture is presented.

"For the Defense" is an adaptation by Beulah Marie Dix of the play by Elmer Rice. Vernon Steele plays opposite the star.

SMALL ARTICLE IN STATE'S LAW IS VERY COSTLY

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 25.—Section 25, article 3 of the constitution of Oklahoma will cost the state at least three to five hundred dollars unnecessary expenditure in printing this year, and the same cost will be renewed each year without end, unless the unexpected happens in some way, according to officials compiling the annual report of the state corporation commission.

As the article stands, they say, matter which has been printed once in pamphlet form already must be reprinted in the annual report, not only for this year but each year,—the same matter each time except the possible revision.

Those officials in charge of preparing the report for the printer sought a method of erasing the constitution by which money might be saved for the state. They suggested that the matter which already has been printed might be made a supplement to the report so that it would not be necessary to reprint it. But members of the commission held that the constitution must be compiled with to the letter.

The article of the constitution in question provides that all general orders of the commission current during a year must be compiled and printed in the annual report.

The matter in question is made up of three general orders issued by the commission this year which have already been put into pamphlet form. They are:

Order 1946, prescribing rules governing the construction of telephone, telegraph, electric and electric transmission lines. The pamphlet in which the order was printed has 90 pages.

Order 2072, setting standards for electric service and providing for the testing of meters and otherwise regulating the service of electric utilities. The pamphlet has 28 pages.

Revised order 774, relating to the reporting of property balance sheets, accounts and the filing of profiles and plats of gas and electric utilities with the classification of property accounts.—56 pages.

The three orders total 174 pages. The annual report last year was about 700 pages without these orders, and 750 copies were printed, it was said at the commission.

McAdoo is Unable to Make Addresses Because of Illness

(By the Associated Press) DODGE CITY, Kan., Oct. 25.—William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, was unable to deliver his scheduled address here today because of illness. Mr. McAdoo's addresses at Syracuse, Kan., this afternoon and Denver tonight also were cancelled, upon the advice of his physician who ordered complete rest.

The former treasurer became suddenly ill last night after leaving Wichita. Mr. McAdoo will not make a address in the interest of the democratic campaign until he arrives at Salt Lake City and then only with the consent of his physician, he said today.

Farmers' Column
By Byron Russell

I have always wanted suggestions from practical farmers on ways and means of getting the best results, but have not succeeded very well in my efforts. No man knows it all about any line of business. There is none so wise but what he can learn more and the News is a most excellent medium for an exchange of ideas. This week I am presenting an article from a hustling young hog breeder of the Oakman community. If others have made a success of his methods or have learned better ones, the News would be pleased to have something about it.

Time to Plant Fruit Trees.
By F. M. Rolfs,
Professor of Horticulture, Okla. A. and M. College.

The first thing to decide in setting out an orchard is the time to plant. There are two times when trees are planted in Oklahoma—in the fall after the leaves have fallen and in the spring before new growth starts. The results obtained by spring or fall planting will vary more or less with the season.

Trees planted in the fall of a favorable growing season will start off more promptly than those planted in the spring and consequently will make more growth the first year. The reason for this, of course, is easily explained. The roots will start and grow more or less during the mild fall and winter and hence the fall planted tree has become fairly well established and starts its growth promptly with the opening of the spring. However, if the winter is dry, accompanied by excessive dry winds, the twigs and branches of the fall planted trees may dry out so as to materially injure the tissues before the roots have formed sufficiently to supply the lost moisture.

The new roots on the spring planted trees form quickly and with the soil usually supplied with plenty of moisture, the top of the tree is not so apt to suffer from loss of moisture. For central and western Oklahoma, the spring is the safest time to plant trees.

Preserves as Gifts.
Some Oklahoma housewives during jelly and preserving time are looking ahead to Christmas, home economics workers with the Extension Division of the A. and M. College report. Small glasses of these delicacies, wrapped up in tissue paper with a gay ribbon and a bit of holly, they say, make much more acceptable gifts, than do the useless trinkets so often given. Even as gifts for men these little jars of jellies and preserves are declared to be usually more appreciated than the proverbial "Christmas cigars" and untieable neckties.

"Hogging Down Corn"

Just a few years ago the practice of turning a bunch of hogs into a field of corn and letting them do their own husking, was looked upon as a lazy man's method and was severely criticized. Today the situation is about the reverse of that. The number of hogs being fattened in this manner is immense and the practice seems to be favored universally as well as locally.

Hogs make larger and more economical gains when they are permitted to do their own feeding, eating when they feel so inclined and resting likewise. They will make a faster gain, and this item alone is worthy of consideration. Hogs allowed to do their own husking are naturally more healthy than ones confined to small places and only permitted to eat and sleep.

Then the item of labor saving is very important to those who want to get things done at a minimum of cost. Hand feeding takes time and to those who have hired labor, is a large saving.

Proper fencing for hogs costs a neat sum of money, but when used over a period of years, reduces the yearly cost to a minimum.

If the easier method did not show to be a superior way and showed a large per cent of waste the practice would be dropped immediately. Large breeders are convinced that it is all gain.

It is undesirable to turn a few hogs into a large field of corn, so it would be necessary, perhaps in some instances to put up temporary fences where the number of pigs is small in proportion to the acreage.

For breeding stock the practice should not be considered, it ordinarily results in getting them too fat during their early growth. Corn alone is a poor feed for breeding stock, and should in every instance have a good supplement, any feed high in protein is desirable to help balance the ration.

A pig that has been very unpromising as a money-maker, when turned into fields of corn and peas will in a few short weeks change himself into a splendid porker with exaggerated waist-line and double chin.

$1,441,486 A YEAR'S DISASTER RELIEF COST

Red Cross Aided 145,000 Victims in United States—Losses Total $30,000,000.

Seventy-two disasters, with hundreds reported killed and injured, and more than 145,000 either homeless or requiring assistance, called for emergency relief measures and the expenditure of $1,441,486.36 by the American Red Cross during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1922, according to a statement based on the forthcoming annual report of the Red Cross. The greatest toll of life was taken by hurricane and tornado, while the overflowing of rivers, the breaking of dams and torrential rains drove the greatest number of people from their homes. The property loss was estimated at more than $30,000,000.

The year's disasters reported included twenty-six floods, nineteen tornadoes, fifteen fires, four epidemics, two theatre collapses, two shipwrecks (one an airship), and a bridge collapse, mine explosion, railway collision, and a drought. Of the floods in the United States that at San Antonio, Texas, caused the greatest property loss, $6,000,000 and the high mark of fatalities, 100, while the flood in the vicinity of Vicksburg and Natchez, Miss., forced 31,000 persons from their homes.

A National Calamity
In the Red Cross disaster relief records there will probably remain for many years one calamity which touched nearly every state with a sense of horror and of loss. This was the distressing collapse of the roof of the Knickerbocker Theatre in Washington, D. C., resulting in ninety-six deaths and 125 persons injured. Situated in the center of the beautiful Northwest residential section, this motion picture theatre was patronized by many persons of prominence both in the official and civil life of the National Capital, whose family and personal connections radiated out over the entire country. The horror was intensified by a terrific snowstorm which, though it retarded, did not block Red Cross relief.

Airship Crash Finds Aid at Hand
The crash and destruction of the U. S. Army's large airship Roma in Virginia last February with the loss of 34 officers and men and 11 injured was the first disaster of its kind to call for Red Cross relief in this country. The suddenness of the accident tested the preparedness of the organization and of the Chapter at Hampton, Va., but the response was immediate and relief furnished the survivors, also funds for the expenses of relatives of the dead, who came from long distances to claim their own.

In the year's overseas record for aid rendered by the Red Cross are two fires in the Philippines, one in Manila, which destroyed 1,000 homes, with a loss of $1,500,000 and 5,000 persons made homeless, the other at Tono, which drove 3,000 from their dwellings. In medical relief that was quick and effective the smallpox epidemic in San Domingo, which had a total of 22,000 cases with 225 deaths in a single day, tested the readiness of the Red Cross for action, and the same can be said of the San Domingo hurricane, which killed 12 persons and reduced the homes of 182 persons to wreckage. A flood in San Salvador, with a death toll of 50 and 2,000 refugees, was also effectively handled by the local Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Relief Machinery Perfected
The year has seen the further perfection of disaster relief administrative measures in every field of American Red Cross activity, and that the work may be carried on to still greater accomplishments the American Red Cross is appealing for widespread renewal of membership during the annual Roll Call, to be conducted this year from Armistice Day (November 11) to, and including, Thanksgiving Day (November 30).

AMERICAN LEGION

OWSLEY IS POPULAR COMMANDER OF LEGION

At fourth American Legion National convention which closed at New Orleans October 20, Alvin M. Owsley of Texas was elected national commander.

Owsley was carried on the shoulders of Texas Legionnaires to the place on the platform beside retiring Commander MacNider, who grasped his hand and then turned to the assembly. The Texas band broke loose.

While MacNider jerked the going violently, "Bill" Deegan, of New York, led in the capitulation of defeated candidates. Deegan moved the vote to be made unanimous. The vote was announced as: Owsley 574; Deegan 251; Thompson 205; McCormick 12.

Five national vice commanders were elected as follows:
Edward J. Barrett, Sheboygan, Wis.; Robt. S. Blood, Concord, N. H.; Charles P. Palmer, Cashier, Wyo.; Earl Cooke, Macon, Ga.; and Waston B. Miller, Washington, D. C.

Father William B. O'Connor of Ohio was elected National Chaplain by a vote of 714 to 374 over Rev. Ezra Clemons, a Methodist of Minnesota. Rev. Clemons moved the vote to be made unanimous. After benediction by Father O'Connor, Commander MacNider, pronounced the fourth national convention adjourned.

Has County Attorney.
Alvin M. Owsley, new national commander of the American Legion, began his career at Camp Bowie, with the 36th division in 1917. He resigned as county attorney at Denton, Texas, to go to war. Mustered in there as a captain, he went overseas as a lieutenant-colonel and returned a colonel. For a time after peace, he was an assistant attorney general of Texas. His parents live at Denton, Texas.

To Stage Carnival.
The American Legion post at Woodward will put on a home talent carnival on November 9, 10 and 11. The one staged by the post two years ago proved such a big success and the boys expect to make this one much better and bigger.

OKLAHOMA LEADS NATION IN HOSPITALS FOR VETS

No other state in the Union has shown such efficiency, speed and economy in procuring and maintaining hospital facilities and treatment for ex-service men of the World and other wars as the state of Oklahoma. The policy and results shown in Oklahoma's endeavors to redeem the promise of the nation to its defenders, was held up for an example at the convention. Other states are requesting information on the plan and organization of Oklahoma's successful hospital program. The Soldiers Tubercular Sanatorium at Sulphur is especially commented on by authorities for economy and efficiency in construction.

TRIAL OF SHOPMEN IS NEARLY READY TO OPEN
(By the Associated Press)
MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 25.—After five weeks and three days of effort during which the criminal court here has been in session every week day, the state expects before night to complete a jury which is to try Frank A. Miller, Seth W. Boston, Charles Moak and Albert Johns, striking railroad shopmen on a charge of murder in connection with the fatal wounding of Charles Lanier, a shop employee, early in September.

LOS ANGELES ORDERS TO AID WOUNDED MEN

Leading civic and social organizations in Los Angeles have joined enthusiastically in a movement for aiding disabled veterans of the World War, through the establishment of a downtown shop where will be sold articles made by the veterans who are seeking to become self supporting. The American Legion, the Elks, the Shriners and other organizations are represented on the board of directors and among the active supporters are Rupert Hughes, the noted novelist, Mrs. William DeMille, Rabbi Magnin, Col. Arthur Williams, U. S. N., retired, Harry Chandler, Hays Rice, Mrs. Daisy C. Danziger and other prominent persons. The Needlework Guide of America, represented by Mrs. Boyle Workman, contributed $2,000 and the American Legion of Los Angeles pledged $250 a month for six months for establishing the shop and equipping it, and in addition to the sale of articles disabled veterans may make at home, the shop will have a complete shoe cobbler department as well as other departments where they may work and earn their living.
